Please provide Customer Service with a diagram of your specific configuration including location of ganging connector clips.

Easy release connector clip instructions:

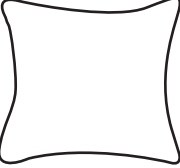

- Units slide together for a secure ganged connection.

- If disconnected, connector clips may be hidden by swiveling clips inward under unit.

Side Chair: A ganging bracket with a screw on assembly is available for the Allure side chair (6400-11). When installed, a 1.5" clearance is between the arms of the ganged side chairs. Only one bracket is required between two chairs. Simple field assembly of the bracket will need to be done by installing six machine screws into pre-threaded holes in metal brace under chairs. Upcharge: $75 list; specify on order.
